

Selection for 2012 Palmhouse Foundation Bursaries for Secondary School

The Palmhouse Foundation is pleased to announce the commencement of its annual activities with the 2012 nationwide selection of new beneficiaries.

The Foundations leverages sponsorship for bright students whose families cannot afford secondary school fees. The Foundation and its many partners mentor them through life to help them to realise their dreams, transform their lives and that of society.

We are conducting our 2012 nationwide selection of needy and deserving students whose four years of secondary education will be fully paid, and who will benefit from the Foundation's unique feature of the mentoring programme throughout secondary school and thereafter.

To qualify for consideration, students MUST be admitted to a National School or have scored over 380 marks in the 2011 Kenya Certificate of Primary Education (KCPE).
